A DEAL OF SPECULATION

OVER THE ALLEGED SALE OF THE BALTIMORE & OHIO.

Statements of the "New York Sun" and "New York Herald" Order—How the Stock is Held—Clearing the Decks for the Interstate Law—Western Union Financial—Railroad Notes.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 10.—The alleged "deal" between Mr. Alfred Sully, of New York, representing a powerful syndicate controlling the Richmond & Danville, the Jersey Central, and the Reading railroads, and Mr. Garrett, for a controlling interest in the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, was the sensation of the day Wednesday. It was talked of everywhere in financial and commercial circles, and the universal belief is that there is so much smoke, there must be fire. Mr. Garrett was best with all eyes at the Central building for information as to the truth or falsity of the statement that he had transferred a controlling interest in the New York syndicate, and he gave the same answer to everybody: "I have nothing to say."

There are in existence 150,000 shares of Baltimore & Ohio stock, held as follows: The Garrett, 45,000 shares; city of Baltimore, 20,000 shares; the Pennsylvania, 10,000 shares; the Burns family, 4,000 shares; the Gregg family, 6,000 shares; John Hopkins (estimated), 10,000 shares; other holders, 30,000 shares. By the provisions of the late John W. Garrett will, 90,000 of the 45,000 shares held by his children are in trust for twenty years, and can not be sold; but of course they can be voted any way their holders see fit. It has been erroneously stated that it would require 75,000 shares to constitute a majority; this is not the case. The 45,000 shares held by the city of Baltimore and the state can not be voted upon any question save that of the policy of the road, having no vote in the election of a president, etc., so that the possession of 24,000 shares is actually a controlling interest. If Mr. Garrett's wish to transfer a controlling interest in the Baltimore & Ohio to Mr. Sully, or anybody else, it lies in his power to do so, for the possession of the 24,000 shares is actually a controlling interest. If Mr. Garrett's wish to transfer a controlling interest in the Baltimore & Ohio to Mr. Sully, or anybody else, it lies in his power to do so, for the possession of the 24,000 shares is actually a controlling interest.

The following telegram was received Wednesday from a Baltimore & Ohio official source was made late Wednesday night. It says that over the whole made to Mr. Robert Garrett by the New York syndicate, headed by Mr. Sully, for a controlling interest in the Baltimore & Ohio. The price offered was largely in advance of what the stock is now marked at. Mr. Garrett has not accepted the offer, but it is highly probable that an arrangement will be made, whereby a majority of the Baltimore & Ohio stock will be turned over to the syndicate, of which Mr. Garrett will be a member, and that a consolidation of the Philadelphia & Reading, Jersey Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Richmond & Danville, Richmond Terminal, and Georgia Pacific will follow, aggregating a great system of 16,000 miles of railroad.

The monthly meeting of the directors of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company was held Wednesday. The report made of the great receipts of the main trunk line, branches, for February, 1887, was $1,500,000. This is 17 per cent. increase over the earnings of any February since the organization of the company.

What They Say at Sully's. New York, March 10.—It was positively stated Wednesday at Mr. Alfred Sully's office that he had bought the controlling interest in the Baltimore & Ohio railroad from President Robert Garrett, but his representative was not at liberty to give any of the details of the transaction. The control of the telegraph company and express business also goes with the railroad. This is regarded as one of the greatest railroad deals ever made.

The Reading Not in the Deal. PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—The Ledger says that the Pennsylvania and Reading Valley railroad companies are not interested in the alleged Baltimore & Ohio deal; that the controlling powers in the Reading management have nothing to do with it and the company can not be used by the syndicate. That Mr. Corbin's friends deny his connection with the deal, and the Drexels, of New York and Philadelphia have no part in the matter.

CHICAGO RAILWAY MEN

Preparing for the New Order of Things—A Pool Dissolved.

CHICAGO, March 10.—At Wednesday's session of the Central Traffic association, a resolution on the subject of 1,000-mile tickets was adopted. To the effect that the commencement of the later-state law there will be a large number of unexpired portions of mileage tickets outstanding and unused, and in order to treat the public fairly it was agreed that any line so desiring may take 1,000-mile tickets up to April 1. Limited to expire July 31, 1887, at not less than $5 a ticket. The new classification of the trunk lines was unanimously adopted and the recommendation that all second-class tickets be done away with was contained in it.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Chicago & Ohio River pool, a resolution was unanimously adopted to dissolve the pool March 31, and the commissioner was directed to clean up its affairs and make balances between lines up to April 1. A brief discussion of the pool clause in the interstate bill forced the managers to the conclusion that a pool run on the principle of theirs could not exist with the sanction of the law.

Report of the Western Union. New York, March 10.—By the quarterly statement of the Western Union Telegraph company it is shown that the surplus on Oct. 1, 1886, was $5,821,261.93; net revenue for the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1886, $911,015.10; total, $6,732,276.93, from which, deducting interest, etc., $145,469.70, leaves net surplus of $6,586,807.23 Jan. 1, 1887. It is estimated that net revenues for quarter ending March 31, next will be $750,000, which makes the surplus $6,086,807.23, from which there will be taken interest, etc., to the amount of $145,470, leaving the surplus $5,941,337.23. The volume of business over the last lines was largely increased during 86, but the cable service decreased, and as there is a large outlay on the plant ahead the committee recommends that no dividend be declared.

Drugging a Railway to Terms.

TRENTON, N. J., March 10.—The assembly Wednesday passed unanimously a bill to amend the charter of the Morris & Essex road, the property of which is worth about $30,000,000, with the provision that the stock shall not become operative if the company will, before June 1 next, file a waiver of its claim of exemption from taxation under its special charter; and with the further provision, that upon the filing of such waiver, the state will remit its claim for about $1,000,000 to delinquent taxes.

Emmons Blaine's New Situation. CHICAGO, March 10.—Emmons Blaine, who resigned his position with the Northwestern and a few weeks ago, constantly to accept a place with a commercial house, is reported to have accepted the general passenger and freight agency of the Chicago, Santa Fe & California railway, with an office in this city.

Another Could Road.

PEORIA, Ill., March 10.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Peoria & Pekin Union Railway company Wednesday Jay Gould, H. S. Hopkins, and Austin Corbin, of New York, and D. J. Mackay, of Evansville, were elected directors.

THE BEECHER OBSEQUIES.

An Opportunity To Be Given the Public to View the Remains.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 10.—The committee having in charge the funeral services of the late Henry Ward Beecher made the following arrangement Wednesday of the partial programme of the services: "Thursday morning at 9:30, strictly private services will be held at the residence of his family at 140 West 10th street, New York, N. Y., by Rev. Dr. Charles H. Hall, officiating."

"At the close of these services the body will be removed, under escort of the Third regiment, from his late residence to the Plymouth church, where it will be held on Saturday morning. The body will lie in state during the day."

THE BEECHER HOME.

state during the remainder of Thursday, and may be viewed by the public. A guard of honor will be detailed from Company G, Third regiment, to guard the remains until their removal to Greenwood.

"Friday morning at 9:30 the church will be opened for the funeral services, which will be conducted by Rev. C. H. Hall. At the close of the funeral services the congregation and public will again have an opportunity to view the remains up to 4 p. m., Friday." At that hour the three Sunday schools connected with the church, in charge of their superintendents and teachers, will view the remains. Upon closing the church Friday public services will be closed and the removal to the cemetery will be private on Saturday morning. While services are being held in Plymouth church on Friday morning, similar services will be held in the First Baptist church, Holy Trinity church, and the Second Unitarian church, this city. It is also probable that services will be held in other churches at the same time."

The mayor and common council offered the use of the city hall for the lying in state of Mr. Beecher's body. The committee on arrangements replied expressing gratification at the suggestion, but stating that they and friends preferred to have the final obsequies confined to the church with which Mr. Beecher had been so long identified.

Among those who will hold services in churches identified with Mr. Beecher are: Plymouth church, in addition to those before named are: Rev. T. D. Witt Talmage, Tabernacle; Rev. A. J. F. Behrens, Central Congregational; Rev. A. Gunnison, All Saints Unitarian; Rev. Thomas Armstrong, Fifth Avenue Baptist (New York); Rev. M. Storrs, Orange, N. J., Presbyterian; Rev. A. A. Farley, Unitarian; Rev. George E. Hood, Hanson place Methodist; Rev. A. J. Hudson, Reform; Rev. W. L. Phillips, St. John's Methodist; Rev. C. C. Hall, First Presbyterian.

Irishmen Deplore His Death. BOSTON, Mass., March 10.—At a meeting of the municipal council of the Irish National league Tuesday evening, Thomas F. Brady introduced a resolution that Irish Americans sorrowed in Henry Ward Beecher's death. Its adoption was opposed by several persons on the ground that Beecher, when in Europe, had said of Irishmen in America that, "Those who did not die of rum-drinking made good citizens," and that his whole life had been against the Irish. The resolution was warmly defended by Revenue Collector Fitzgerald and others and it was passed by a vote of 10 to 5.

English wants to be one of the commissioners.

In the assembly, after a lively debate, the bill prohibiting Finkerton from doing legal police duty in the state was killed. The proposed amendment to the constitution was killed to compel foreigners to reside in the state five years, instead of one, before being able to vote.

Refused to "Set Off" Alma.

LANSING, Mich., March 10.—After a long fight in the house Wednesday the bill to set off half of the village of Alma into a township was defeated. This is the bill that the millionaire Wright is interested in. The bill to give women a vote in municipal elections was reported without recommendation. A bill passed the house and will probably pass the house requiring county jail to have separate wards for men, women, boys and girls.
